

CSC Meeting Agenda 11/14/22

At Jessie Whaley Maxwell Elementary, as an inclusive community and in partnership with parents, we develop our students' independence, critical thought, and enduring love for learning.

CSC Members:

- Mr. Khosravi, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Smith, Mr. Leland, Mrs. Coburn, Mrs. Covarrubias, Mrs. Lopez-Ocasio, Mr. Bailey, 3 vacant parent seats

Other Individuals Present:

Community Agreements:

- 1. Respect one another, respect different backgrounds and views.
- 2. Have Patience and Communicate: We are all learners. Communicate our difficulties/Open communication that's honest and positive. Email to follow-up if needed.
 - a. *Include new team members
 - b. * Include Arts Team.
 - c. *Involve everyone in decisions about students. Input from everyone on the team
 - d. *Hear from all voices (Try everyone speaks once before someone twice).
- 3. Everyone has a role in the classroom - make all adults and students feel included and welcome.
- 4. Presume Positive Intentions. Ask Questions, and try to Repair harm if a difficult situation comes up (instead of just moving past it)
 - a. Taking forward steps (in times we're stressed). Ok to be frustrated, but focus on moving forward - what can we enact to support that student. Ss need our support.
- 5. Growth Mindset - Have Vulnerability of providing feedback to others. Be ok receiving feedback - it's how we grow!
- 6. Acknowledging mental health - if you're having an off day - ok to say it. OK to tap out if you need to.
- 7. Honor Preferences:
 - a. Ask how others prefer to be engaged with (later? In the moment? Pulled aside?) and honor preferences.
 - b. Make all Adult spaces inclusive and accessible..
- 8. Respect others' Time.
- 9. Acknowledge each other (whose idea it was, shout each other out, knowing others' love language - how do we appreciate acknowledgement the best?)
